Montana's women's tennis team travels to Oregon this Saturday for matches with the University of Oregon and Oregon State University.

UM, sporting a 4-2 season record, goes against UO in Eugene in the morning and clashes with OSU in Corvallis that afternoon. It will be UM's first meeting with the two schools this season.

Playing in the number one singles spot Saturday will be Francie Marks. Competing in the second through sixth slots are Sue Robinson, Linda Turman, Gigi Meinhardt, Connie Sadler and Kathy Wenzek.

The doubles pairs of Meinhardt-Turman, Marks-Robinson, and Sadler-Wenzek are ranked number one, two and three respectively.
